RECONOCIMIENTO A REVISORES, ASESORES Y MIEMBROS DEL EQUIPO EDITORIAL

The board of the Cuban Journal of Health Technology, wishes to acknowledge and thank the meritorious, careful and important work done by the editors, reviewers and members of the Editorial Team, in the review of the articles sent to the magazine during the year 2018. They are the following:

PhD. Inarvis Medina González
PhD. Verónica Ramos Suárez
PhD. Miday Columbié Pileta
PhD. Katia García Hernández
PhD. Susana Solís Solís
MSc. Dr. Anayda Alfonso Hidalgo
Dr. José Luís Rodríguez Monteagudo
Dr. Jorge René Fernández
MSc. Eleuterio Atanasio Sánchez Romero
MSc. Jhonny Acevedo Ayala

It is important to point out that many of those who participated with us in the editorial process, but those previously mentioned, are the ones that most regularly comply, with their assigned work within the established period of time. We encourage the rest of the editors and reviewers to contribute to optimize this process, given by the punctuality and quality of the revision of the manuscripts intended for them, so that our authors can see their published works with greater promptness.

We would also like to thank our director, PhD. Maria Aurelia Lazo Pérez for her constant example, as well as all the authors who chose the Cuban Journal of Health Technology in 2018 to send their articles, because without their contributions the magazine would cease to exist.

To everyone, thank you very much

Dr. Miday Columbié Pileta
